

Enriching and fortifying foods, beverages and bottom lines for 30 years.

Before there was a category called “nutraceuticals,” we were already making them.

For over 30 years BI Nutraceuticals has been sourcing, manufacturing and supplying turnkey custom botanical ingredients for natural product applications. In the ever-growing functional food and beverage categories, unique solutions and ingredients are crucial to compete. That’s why our water-soluble extracts and unique raw ingredients are designed to seamlessly integrate for easy formulation and added value.

So before you create your next new functional product, get to know the ingredients supplier with experience.

BI Nutraceuticals—your source for quality botanical ingredients.
